“ What a lovely soul we have lost. Pat took us in when her daughter, Louise, married my brother. She treated us with such kindness. When our son was born we received so many of her hand made gifts for our precious boy, all of which have been carefully saved as precious treasures for generations to come. She always sent us Christmas cards and asked how our boy was doing. She didn't have to, but always did. She would email me sometimes about her latest cruise and her adventures. Pat was a special, bonus relative to us by marriage. I am devastated by her passing and the world lost a great human. I am still in shock and wish peace and love to those mourning the loss of this great lady.
