“ Radford was my brother-in-law and a very good friend. I've never met anyone that didn't like him. He was kind & willing to help in whatever way he could. He was so good to me earlier in life, letting me live with them, taking me to see Lloyd when he was in basic training, trip to Nashville, helping me buy my first car and so much more. Radford will be greatly missed. My prayers go out to his family. RIP my friend.

“ I thought a lot of Mr Hornbuckle. I bought several pieces of equipment from him. He was never a high pressure salesman, just tried to make sure you got what you wanted. He was one of those people I knew would always treat you right.
