“ I was heart broken to hear about Steve. I've spent so much of my life growing up at their house that he was like my older brother too. I loved the family so much back then and still do even though we have kind of lost touch. Memories, memories, memories. You haven't lived until you've played basketball with an old bicycle rim for a goal, or played baseball with whatever you could find or make for a bat and ball. And Steve was the best athlete of us all, but I'm sure Rickey and Michael might argue that one. We ate simple but we ate great. We were poor but didn't know it, and I was loved and treated like part of the family and I will never forget that. I know Steve will be missed, but he will live on in our memories forever. Circumstances won't let me be there at the memorial service, but I will be mourning right along with you. I loved Steve like a brother, and I love you all . Hope to see you all soon.
