“ Robin was such loving, compassionate and loyal friend. Not a time went by when we saw Robin, he would ask how everyone was and if we needed anything. Buddy, you touched our lives and we are so thankful to have shared such a sweet friendship with you. Until we see each other again in heaven, enjoy your time with your daddy and sweet brother.

Robin was so full of life always smiling. He will never know, all the last years of loses I have been through. what his laughter and joking manner has lifted my spirits and life. He was a outstanding man and mentor to all that was around him. Brother I hope you have peace and I wish your family and pray for them to find hope and peace one day as you brought me.

love and hope
