“ Whizz was one of my very best friends. I met him in 1972 when I moved to Arab. It was my senior year of High School and Whizz was one of the first people I met. He and I immediately became great friends. We both shared a love for guitars. He will certainly be missed, but Whizz is in a beautiful place without any pain or suffering.....and he is able to walk again. Good-Bye Old Friend

ME

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Whisenant family with these comforting words: The pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times, we need to go to God's Word for comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) The Bible helps us to understand how God feel about death. You see, God promises, "your dead will live" again. (Isaiah 26:19) Truly, the resurrection is something for us to look forward to with eager anticipation and joy. I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family.
