“ Steve was a good Christian Brother, great colleague, and one of the best comedians this side of Texas!

Even though my heart is saddened by Steve's passing, I will always have those memories of Steve pulling me aside to give me a word from scripture, or just to say something absolutely off-the-wall hilarious, to brighten my day.

Steve was the king of making up silly words.. Believe me, he got plenty of laughs!

I tell you the truth, "A day at work without Steve, was not productive."

Oh and another thing, Steve made sure I knew more pro baseball history,,, he was shocked to find out I didn't know anything about Willie Mays. LOL:-}}

Most important, he was a family man.. He spoke quite often of his Wife, two daughters, his son, his younger brother, his parents, and his fun-filled high school days at Huntsville High School.

To the Trent Family,
I, Edrek L. Jackson, along with the Jackson family, extend our heart felt condolences.

I share a scripture Steve would often share with me:
Acts 2:38
