“ Syble and David always welcomed me and my family into their home to share a meal or just visit. The last time I seen Syble she hugged me so tight and was so glad to see me. We laughed and reminisced about me, along with her own children, running and sliding down the hall at the house they still live in today. We talked about the life I remember so fondly as a little girl, and did so with love, laughter, and happiness. I've lost both of my parents and I'm so sorry for the loss all of you are dealing with. I'd love to tell you it will get easier, if only that were true. Try to remember just how loved all of you are by her. Keep making her proud. I may not see y'all often, but I do love each of y'all. Hold on to your faith. God please bless this family. Love, Sandy Talley Young. Daughter of Delbert and Faye Talley
