“ I have thought and thought of what to say but I have found no words to express the way I feel about my sweet friend Tammy. I will say that I'm blessed to have been her friend for over 40 years and honored to have her ask me to pray with her and lead her to the Lord. She was so in love with God and depended on His strength to carry her, I'm sure that Tammy is rejoicing with Jesus and all her loved ones that have gone before her. Tammy my heart breaks knowing I'll not here your voice saying "Hey honey" or laughing with you over the silliest things. Thank you my brave friend for helping me through the past 2 years and though I can't be with you to say goodbye, you know I'm with you in spirit saying until I see you again sweetie. Your forever in my memories and in my heart! I love you Tammy Jo

“ Glen,

Words cannot explain how I felt about Tammy. During my 6 year stay in Illinois, you guys took care of me like family. My family was in New York State.....but I always felt the love and concern from you and Tammy. On the days when I felt like giving up you would always encourage me to hang in there and remind me of my purpose for being in IL. I will never forget how Tammy always took care of you, she would ask me if you were doing what he doctor said...and I always told you if she asked me I was going to tell her the truth. Tammy Jo cared and loved everybody...I can see her now looking out for everyone around her...just a loving person. Taylor was her world, she put her all into making her a sweet young lady. Please know that I am always here for you and Taylor.

“ I will never forget meeting Tammy in the church bathroom!! I had seen she was in line after service for prayer in front of my church and the line was long. I thought I should go down and pray with this women, turned my head and she was gone.... After I got to the lobby I decided to use the bathroom and there stood the same beautiful woman I saw in line for prayer just few minutes before. I said hi Im Chris do you need prayer? She started to cry and Layed in my arms and I held her tight and prayed and prayed and prayed some more, till she looked up at me and said, I feel better and thank you. We talked for and hour, but we did move our talk out to lobby my as my 83 year old mom was waiting for me. We talked and shared our story's. Every Sunday from that day on Tammy and I worshiped together💕 We had our talks about both of our struggles both of our joys and our love for out family's and children. I have never met anyone In my life who I loved the minute I met, Tammy was that special soul💕 My mother always said the same thing. Tammy would talk with us every Sunday after church, we would sometimes be the only three left on lobby, which means an hour or hour in a half of just loving each other and sharing our feelings!!! Tammy would call as she struggled through her problems and I would give the best advice I knew how to give, and she did the same for me. We had some of the same struggles, and we just GOT JUST OTHER!!!! I LOVE HER WITH ALL MY HEART AND SHE WILL ALWAYS HAVE THAT SPECIAL PLACE THERE NO ONE ELSE WILL EVER HAVE!!! I will see her again and I know she is in heaven with her beautiful spirt and SMILE😊 May God bless all of you through this very heart breaking time. I will be praying🙏 For justice for Tammy!!!!!! Some how the people who did this to her have got to be held accountable Love to you all, Chris Conner
