“ Tommie was such a bright light! I never reported to him, but he was always so helpful and friendly! I saw Tommie the night before he passed, he looked so happy! Although i was on a call, he made sure i saw him and spoke to me. I'm so glad that my last memory of him will be his smile! ”

“ I will never forget coming to this job and my very first performance evaluation, Tommie patted me on my back with that big smile and said, "thanks for just being awesome Jamie." And he said that to me on so many occasions for so many different things when I'd not even felt good about myself just to remind me that a guy as special as him thought I was awesome. There could never be a better boss or human being that could ever measure up to Tommie. In your darkest days and times he always had a genuine smile, hug, and encouraging words for you. Stay strong Sara, your Daddy loved you so much. You were his sun, stars, and moon baby girl. No matter where you go in life, take that with you always. Thank you for always believing in me Tommie and pushing me to be better. I am forever TEAM TOMMIE. ”

“ Tommie, the last time I talked to you was Saturday night. At work I hugged you , said I loved you and told you how happy I was to see and have you back. Before you walked out for lunch you turned and asked if I needed anything while you were out. . I have only known you since I have been working at DTV ,security. A couple years now. You were the sweetest, kindest, friendliest guy, and funny as crap!!! The best,true country boy I will have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I truly love and will miss you and you will forever have a place in my heart...my condolences to your family and hugs and love to little Sarah. Peace and love for all of you..
