“ Sweet Troy, you were 4 years old when I first met you. You were so curious about everything and had a smile that could light the sky. You lived music so much that I spied you tapping a foot or bobbing your head even to a commercial music if the beat was good. I know you are walking on streets made of gold with a perfect body that carries no pain sharing your songs with the angels at the right hand of God.

Save me a spot because I will be there soon and want to sit right next to you.

Your Aunt by choice,
~Adrienne

I miss you Troy. I still remember all the stories, of how you weren't yet able to walk, but I being the determined person I have always been pulled you around with me... Even if I got in trouble, you were my only friend, and we wanted to play.

I miss dollar bowling nights, and karaoke, us singing Jason Alden Dirt Road Anthem. I remember us crying missing Papaw while listening to holes in the floor of heaven.

“ Troy was a special person. I remember shooting fireworks every July while he watched on smiling. He was very shy but would carry on a conversation if he got to know you. The trailer park won't be the same without him. His presence is missed and I'm praying for his family.

“ Troy was our Angel here on Earth and will be missed beyond words. I love my favorite memory of Troy and Me driving down 36 to go get the tag for my car and the radio didnt work so we created the Troy & Eva Radio show and sang songs in the car all the way there and back He would laugh so hard and we had so much fun doing it. Troy Enjoy Life and he loved unconditionally. His Smile would lite up the whole room he was in. Rest easily Troy your work here on Earth is done and I know your singing in with the Angels now In the Heavenly Choir. No More pretend Radio. Your on the Heavenly Radio..
Love always
