“ Hi Uncle Cecil,

I was thinking about you today and wanted to let you know, I miss you so very much. I am overjoyed to know that you are with my parents again. This time to never be apart.

*Love you so much,
Sheryl*

“ Hi Uncle Cecil,

I have been thinking about you and thought I would just let you know that I love you and miss you. I didn't see you that much, but now I can't even travel to see you. You are always in my thoughts. You and my dad better stay out of trouble up there, lol.

Love Sheryl

“ I only had the privilege of spending a little time with Uncle Cecil throughout my life because of distance, but felt like I knew him so very well. My first memory of Uncle Cecil was when I was about 7 years old and my parents (Billy and Myrna) took our family to Alabama to visit family. I walked into Grandma Dailey's house and Uncle Cecil was sitting in the rocking chair by the front door. He grabbed my hand, picked me up, put me on his lap and hugged on me while we rocked in the chair. I was wearing my little Raggedy Ann dress and as shy as I was... I loved every minute of it. He had such a warm and inviting sense about him that really made me feel safe and comfortable. He will hold a special place in my heart!

Here is a great big hug for you ((((((Uncle Cecil))))))... I will miss you.

Love you... Your Niece, Sheryl

“ Cecil and Peggy have been a part of my entire life. I have memories of them and my parents playing cards all night. We would go to the lake camping and fishing. Cecil is in heaven with my parents Alice and Johnny Blair.

Rest with peace. My love and prayers to the entire family.
