“ Jane and I were saddened to learn of Billy's death today. You have our deepest sympathy. Ward remembers his coming to Brindlee Mountain Little Theatre rehearsals or performances with his dad sometimes. He was always pleasant and gracious. We know you miss him terribly and are grieving his loss, but you will find comfort and consolation in remembering Billy in his best moments with family and friends as time goes by.

“ Billy lived next door to me from 1980 and 1987 in Bynum, Alabama. I watched him grow from a young boy to a young gentelman. After that he moved with his family to Arab, AL and it would be years in between times that I would see him. Bill, Brenda and Marla my prayers are for comfort to get through these days to come. Love you, Charlene Clark
